

Breakfast at the British

Saturday, July 16 | Golf Pride HQ

Old Tom Morris could have never imagined what The Open would become when he played in the 1st Championship in 1860 with a field of 8 players!

Now, the 150th Open Championship will be played on the Old Course at St. Andrews in what is sure to be a historic event with the world's greatest players vying for the Claret Jug.

This summer, there'll be no better place in town to watch the drama, tension, and journey to Open Champion unfold than on the big screens at Golf Pride's Global Innovation Center.

You'll be treated to a Scottish style breakfast menu catered by Elliotts, a closest to the pin competition on the Old Course's famed par 3s from state of the art simulators, and a friendly trip around the nine hole indoor putting course that loops through Golf Pride's headquarters.

Secure a spot as we watch history unfold at the 150th Open Championship!
